

times like coming up over night; and spending my vacation here.

Q During the month of September, 1922, if you recall, were you here? A. Yes.

Q Just how many times? A. I don't know how many times, but I was here every week, as I say, sometimes oftener, weekends.

Q On these occasions did you see Mr. Henry Stevens?

A Usually. I do not say that I did every time, but usually I did.

Q Where did you see him? A. Oh, I would see him maybe on the beach, maybe going by the house.

Q What street is your house on? A. Magee and Grand Central Avenue. That is the street north of this.

Q Mr. Price, do you remember the 14th day of September 1922?

A Yes, I do.

Q What occurred on that day? A. Well, I came down that day in the afternoon on the afternoon train, the train that leaves Philadelphia around four o'clock, gets in here somewhere six. And sometime in the evening, late, dark, I came down on the beach. They usually fished along here from the surf and I walked down on the boardwalk to see what was going on, noticed a number of men on the beach, and came back, and went down on the sand right here by the
